Holiday on the Square Rings in Old-Fashioned Celebration

The Franklin Square Merchants Association will host Holiday on the Square on Saturday Dec. 3 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Shops at Franklin Square, 9700 Kingston Pike (see <http://franklinsq.com/>).

This old-fashioned family celebration will include carriage rides with Percheron draft horses. Children of all ages can get pictures taken with Santa on his sleigh, while elves and other helpers will liven up the atmosphere. Entertainment will be available throughout the event.

The Karns Middle School Encore Choir and The Episcopal School of Knoxville's middle school choir will fill the air with energetic voices. Christian Academy of Knoxville's Elementary Junior Praise Choir and the Knoxville Children's Choir will add more joy to the mix of holiday favorites. The SonLight Puppeteers will also present songs and stories.

All the while, attendees will enjoy the wonderful lights and decorations and special holiday activities and refreshments.

Proceeds from carriage rides will be donated to the Knox Area Rescue Ministries, which will provide further information at the event.
